The Class of 1967 is pleased to dedicate this year's WECOMI to Mr. James Pettigrew. DR. DONALD F. BIRDSELL
Superintendent of Schools

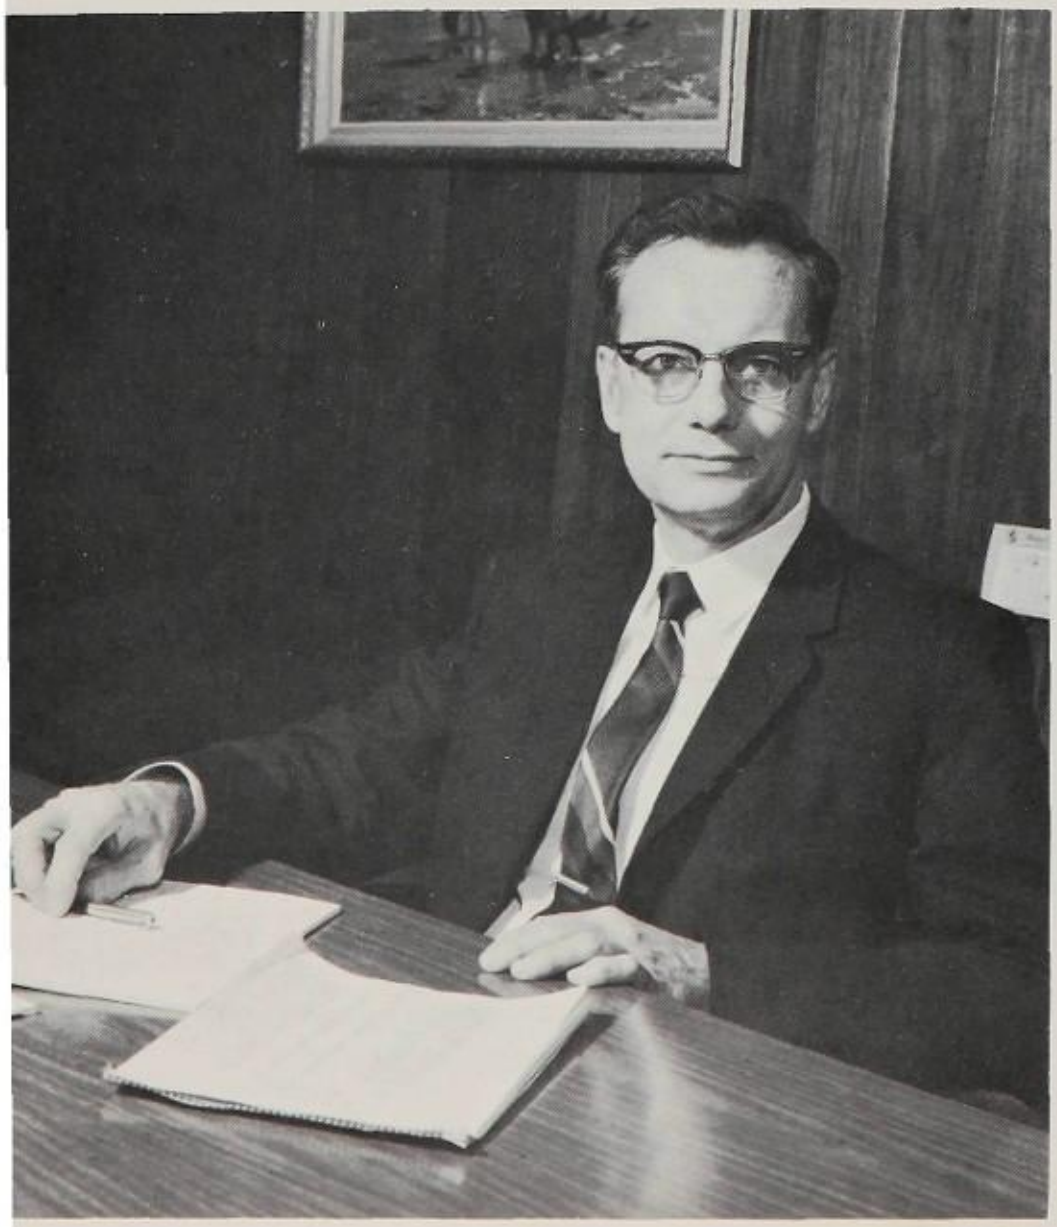
qualified administrator. Not only is his educational background impressive, but his experience is extensive and varied.

He received his B.A. degree in mathematics and science from Luther College, Decorah, Iowa; his M.A. degree in educational administration from the University of Minnesota; and his Ph.D. degree, also in educational administration, from the University of Iowa.

Beginning his teaching career in 1949, Dr. Birdsell served in the capacity of high-school instructor for two years in Monona, Iowa. After another two years as instructor and high-school principal in Primghar, Iowa, he spent two years in the U.S. Army in El Paso, Texas, where he was assigned to Nike Guided Missile training unit. In 1956 Dr. Birdsell returned to the teaching profession, serving for three years as high-school principal in Waverly, Iowa. From 1959 to 1966, Dr. Birdsell lived in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, where he was assistant high-school and high-school principal for three years and Assistant General Superintendent for the four years before coming to Wheaton.

The residents, students, and teachers of Wheaton appreciate Dr. Birdsell's genuine concern for the maintenance of the high standards of their schools and the general welfare of the students.

WCHS WELCOMES NEW ADMINISTRATORS



MR. JOHN W. SCHAFFNIT
Principal

Mr. Schaffnit, although a long-term teacher and administrator at WCHS, is completing his first year as high-school principal. His appointment to this position was enthusiastically received by parents, students, and faculty.

He received his B.A. degree from Park College, Parkville, Missouri, and his M.A. degree from the University of Illinois, Urbana, Illinois. Graduate work beyond the master's degree was taken at various universities, principally the University of Chicago.

Before coming to Wheaton in 1940, Mr. Schaffnit held teaching positions in Newcastle, Nebraska; Nelson, Nebraska; Texarkana, Arkansas; and Staunton, Illinois. At WCHS he was for many years an instructor in biology, chemistry, and physics. His experience as an administrator includes a number of years as Director of Student Activities, Director of Adult Evening School, and Division Director of Science and Mathematics.

Under Mr. Schaffnit's progressive, forward-looking leadership, WCHS will unquestionably continue its tradition of growth and improvement.

John C. Frederick

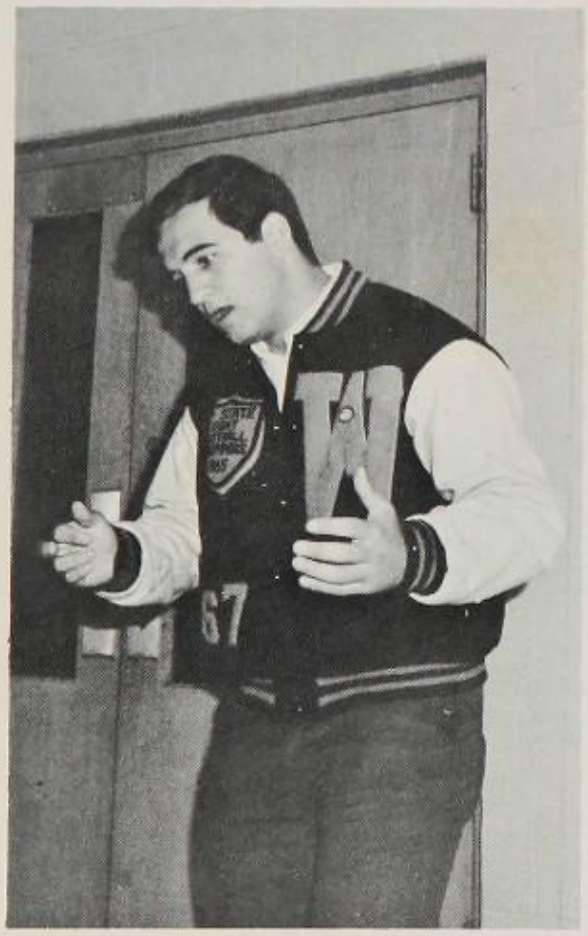
"There is no Death! What seems so is transition;
This life of mortal breath
Is but a suburb of the life elysian,
Whose portal we call Death."

–Longfellow

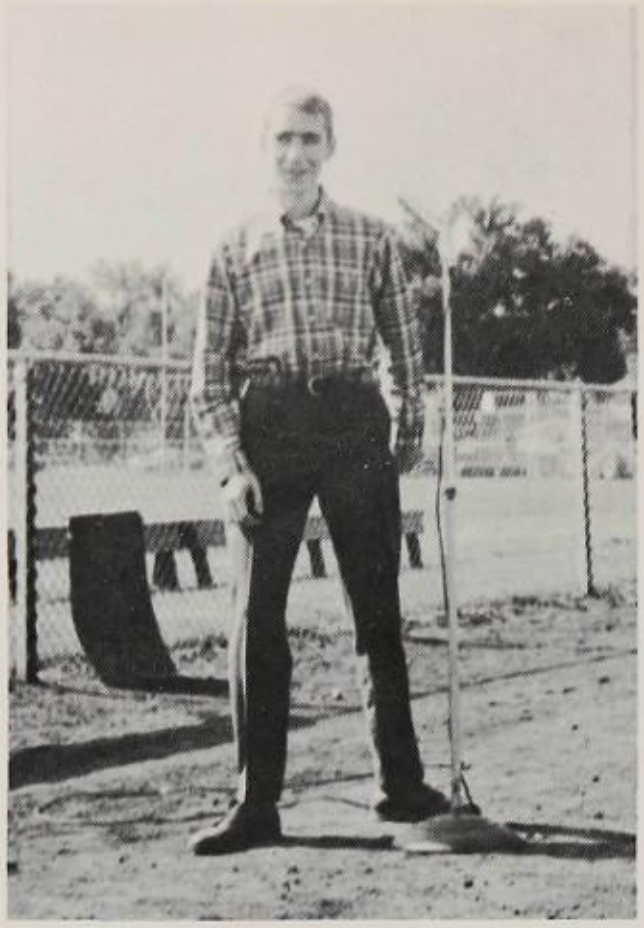
That contact's gotta be here somewhere!

Tweeter gets a new bill.

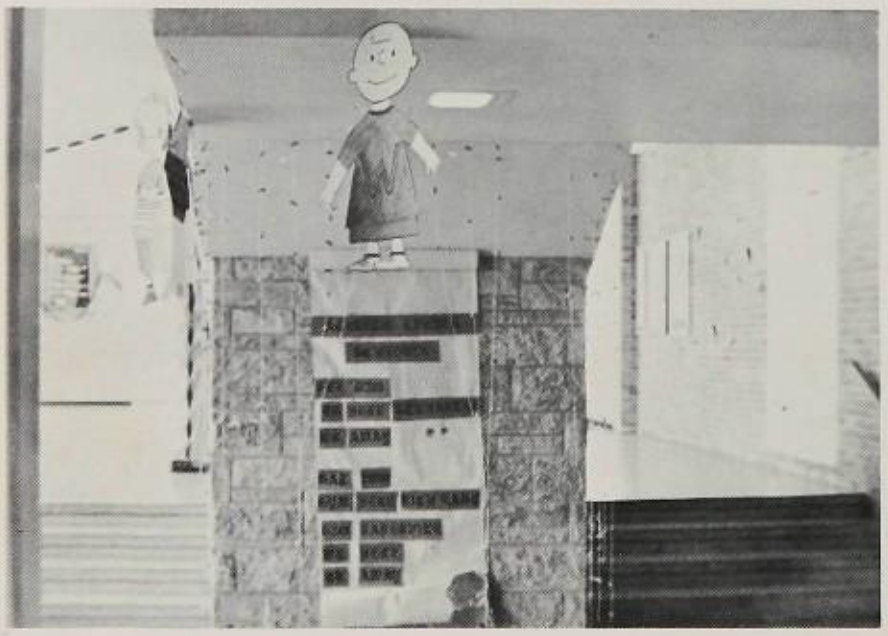


Then I grabbed him . . .

Sing Along With Otto.



"Blinding brilliance, A wisp of smoke . . . An ant is cremated."



Superlative Seniors.

Quick! There's a fire in the boys' washroom!

Stupid cat's cradle.

Newly purchased driver ed. car.

Most likely to succeed.

TIGERS SHOW FIGHTING SPIRIT

*JV Letter Winners
Varsity Letter Winners

The Battling Bengals have finished another fine season. After the victory over Glenbard West, a narrow margin at Freeport, and a St. Charles massacre, a hard-fought battle with Larkin produced a tie to break the chair of victories. To the disappointment of all, the first loss came during Homecoming, but only after a well-fought conflict with Aurora West. The team split the remaining games and finished the season with a 5-3-1 record.

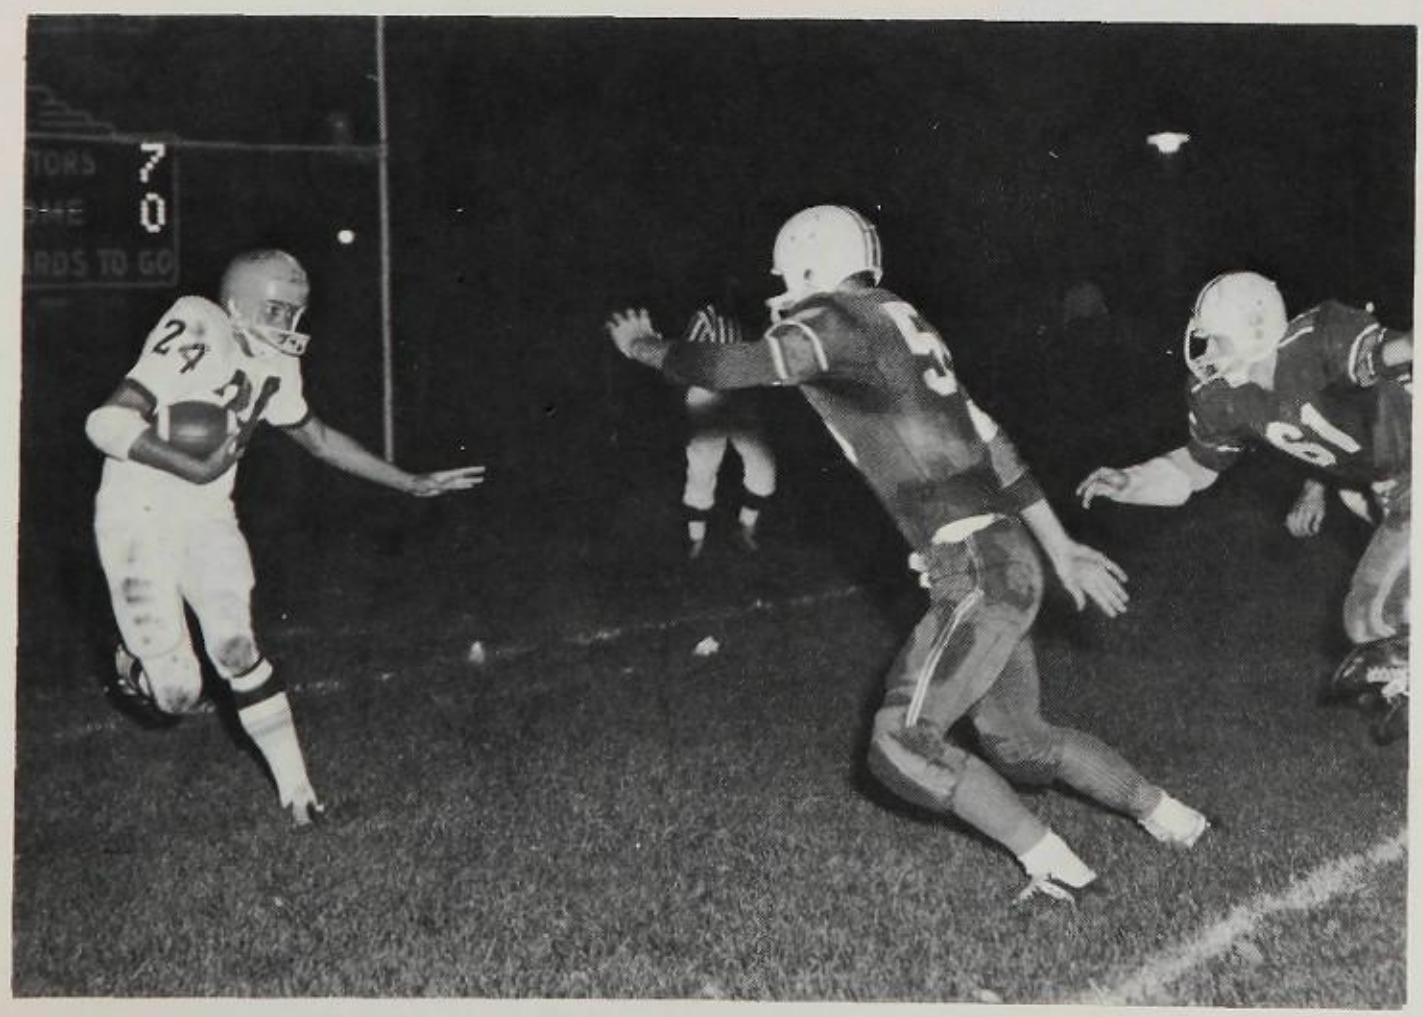
Kelley takes to the air.



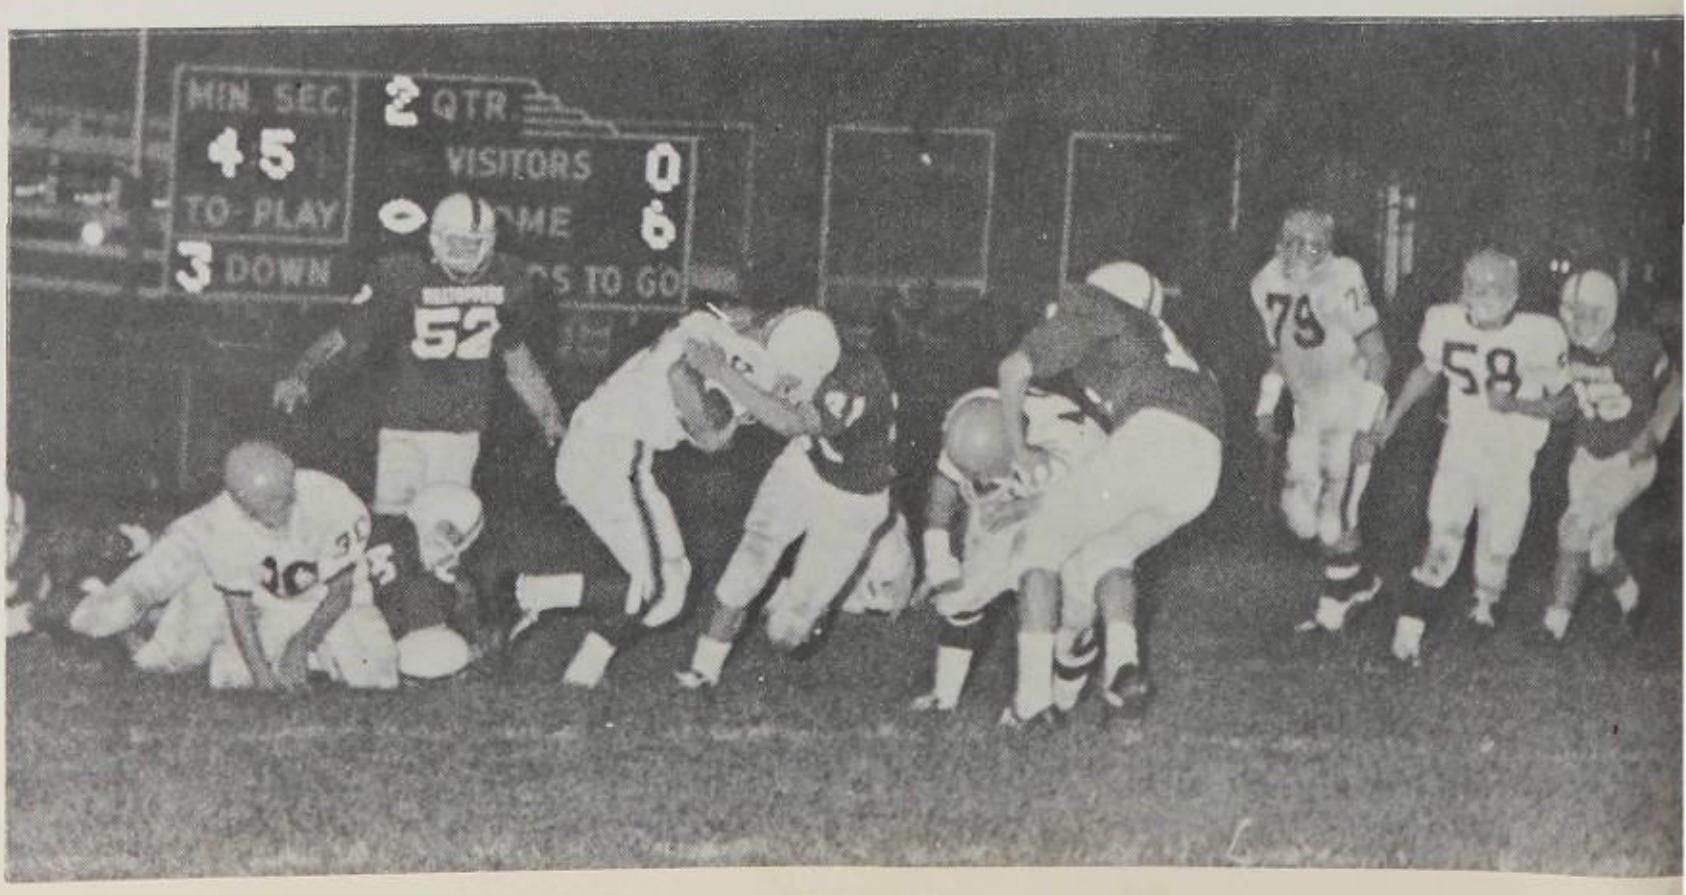
T. Kee tries to evade tacklers.

Kelley makes a run for it.

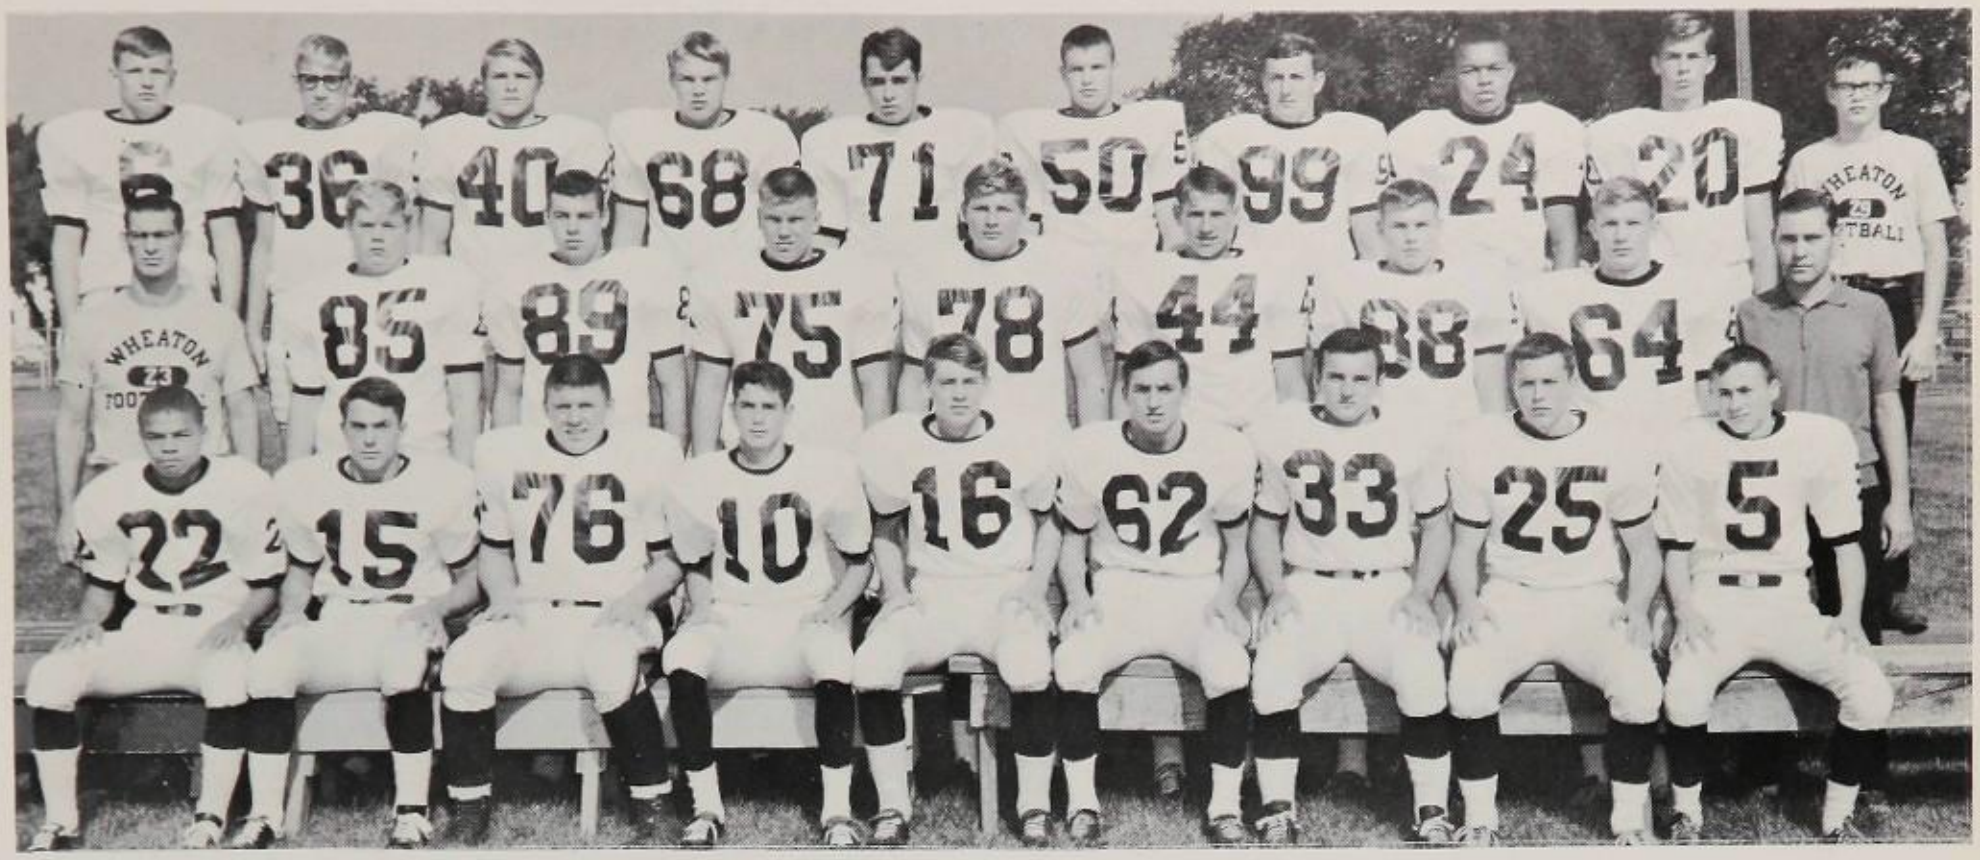
Jack Frederick and John Belushi were named All-Conference this year, with Paul DeNuccio receiving Special Mention and Chuck Kelley and Tom Stansfield receiving Honorable Mention. These boys are just a few of the formidable seniors who complemented the successful varsity squad.

The strategic blocking of the offensive squad and the hard-hitting, penetrating defensive line, coupled with the plays masterminded by Coach Sherman and Coach Johnston, accounted for the numerous victories earned throughout the season.

Stansfield punts out of a fourth-down situation.



JUNIOR VARSITY



ROW 1: N. Kee*, D. Showalter*, R. Maxwell*, B. Drake, D. Ohrn, D. Shanahan*, L. Chorley*, C. Monaghan*, G. Upton*. ROW 2: Coach Reeves, G. Kerlagon, G. Karwoski*, B. Talaber*, B. Dvorak*, B. Bucklin, R. Stover, B. Zorn*, Coach Aellig. ROW 3: D. Tanner*, R. Morris*, S. Barnett*, J. Traub, J. Moffat, D. Reilly*, G. Mackey*, T. Kee, R. Mills*, Mgr. Rick Heckelman.

This season the junior varsity team had a record of 3 wins, 4 losses, and 1 tie. After a slow start the team trounced Aurora West by a score of 31-0 and later Elgin 27-6. The hard-hitting line of the defense and the constantly moving offensive line provided the many victories and the narrow misses. The fine coaching of Mr. J. Aellig and Mr. W. Reeves stimulated the many yardage-gaining plays.

T. Kee takes it around the end.

This year was another year of great success for the sophomore team. In addition to an impassable defensive line, the offensive squad had the help of two fine quarterbacks and four great ends. With the help of these boys the team was spurred to a tremendous 8-1 season, one of their finest.

Pete Kelley and Paul Weiss were the two outstanding quarterbacks with the ability to move the ball in the air as well as on the ground. Their favorite targets were ends Ron Bennett, John Colman, Dan Murphy, and Chuck Vachout. Two main components of the defensive squad were Carl Deli and Jim Krause. Bill Gaines, Tim Gibson, Dave Kerwin, and Rick Schavietello were just a few of the many fine players who complemented the team of the class of '69.

(low score wins)

Coach Fricke's varsity squad has had one of its best seasons in a long time. Finishing with a 5 and 3 record and a tie for third in the conference meet has given the team a good reason to be proud of their teamwork.

Running first and second for the team this year were Garry Barker, this year's captain, and Jeff Barrett. Both boys are seniors and Coach Fricke is sorry to see them go. Other top placers were junior Dave Knaak, next year's captain, who repeatedly ran third for the team, and senior Bob Gettinger.

Cross-country has never had its share of spectators, but this season may have been the one to open the eyes of the student body and show them Wheaton Central has a cross-country team worth watching.

SOPHOMORE CROSS-COUNTRY

The freshman-sophomore team had one of the best groups of runners. They ended the season with a record of 7 wins and only 1 loss.

Outstanding sophomore runners on the squad were Rob Sampson, Chip Purnell, and Kent Norris. These boys will be a welcome addition to Mr. Fricke's varsity squad next fall.

There were many good freshmen runners who participated. The following were most outstanding: Gordon Comstock, George Murray, Bob Foote, Rick Deutscher, Bruce Howard, Brad Barrett, Paul Freshour, and Chuck Gravengood. Coach Gibbs is really looking forward to a good season next year when these boys return to surpass the good job they did this year.

Coaches B. Reeves, E. Ewoldt, and A. Robinson with Co-captains W. Griffin and M. Carlson displaying the trophies won at the junior-varsity Glenbard West Quadrangular, the varsity Oak Park Quadrangular, and the freshmen DeKalb Invitational.

The excellent coaching staff headed by Mr. Ed Ewoldt has spurred the varsity to another fine season. The varsity record for the season is 5 wins, 3 losses, and 1 tie, but that doesn't take into account the numerous tournaments in which all the members made a fine showing. The following is a list of the varsity tournament places won during the season: fourth in the Hinsdale Invitational, third at the Downers Grove North Quadrangular, second at the Homewood Flossmoor Quadrangular, and first in the Oak Park Quadrangular. Despite their sixth place conference standing, they placed fourth in the district competition.

This year's recipient of the Don S. Garner Award for the most valuable wrestler was Woodie Griffin, who truly earned it with a 20-4-0 record.

Three-year-varsity-squad-member Scott Early lead the conference scoring with 432 points to his credit.

PEP CLUB

Pep Club, sponsored by Miss Gilla, has done an excellent job in promoting "pep" this year.

Selling programs at the football games and handling the concession stand have been two large projects which the Pep Club has controlled. Even the attendance contests during the football and basketball seasons have gone over well.

Pep Week, from January 18 to 21, was tremendously successful in promoting school spirit for the entire week. Also, it was the endeavor of the club to promote enthusiasm for the teams throughout the entire year.

GIRLS' LEAGUE

Girls' League is mainly a service club. It serves the community and school with projects and activities that involve girls from all four classes. On Halloween, club members collected money for UNICEF, and at Christmas-time they made table favors for the people at the DuPage County Convalescent Home. As a conclusion to a year of worthwhile service, the Girls' Leagues of the suburban area held a convention to swap ideas.

This year's officers were President Suzy Brown, Vice-President Peggy Murray, Secretary Julie Orr, and Treasurer Lois Miller. The sponsor is Miss Peterson.

To learn more about the various aspects of teaching and to give tutoring assistance are the goals of the Future Teachers of America. This year, under the guidance of Miss Choice, FTA has gained additional knowledge about the teaching profession through films and speakers. The tutoring program, now in its third year, was beneficial both to the members giving this service and to the students receiving it. As a special project for American Education Week, the club put up a bulletin board promoting education and gave apples to the teachers.

The Mother-Daughter Banquet on March 4 had a planned program in which the club showed its appreciation to Mrs. Bullen, the sponsor, and to the officers. This year's officers are President Janet Forsythe, Vice-President Anita Young, Treasurer Elaine Schwab, and Secretary Sharon Schwab.

Although German Club has now been in existence for four years, enthusiasm has not been lagging this past year. Under the informal direction of Mrs. Schregardus, the club has been quite active. The club entered a car in the Homecoming parade, sponsored a bake sale, and viewed home movies of modern Germany. In addition, the club carried out the traditional activities: a Christmas party and a spring banquet held in Chicago. As one can see, the German Club has not only informed the German students on German culture, but has also given the members many fun times. This year's officers were President Marge Schmidt, Vice-President Marty Jansen, Secretary Laurel Hausske, and Treasurer Rick Sawdey.

Latin Club's major activity this year was the true-to-life Roman banquet held on the Ides of March, the unspeakable day of J. Caesar's death. Most of the year was spent gaining pecuniary resources for this gourmet's delight. After a stupendous entry in the Homecoming parade, Senatus Populus que Romanus (that's Latin for Latin Club) sold tiger toys and popcorn balls. In the true tradition of Roman scholars of Wheaton Central, this loyal conclave of true believers of the merits of Latin sold nut confections (or fruit cakes) before the winter recess. Entries in the district Latin contest finished up the year and treasury.

Many thanks go to Miss Powell for her excellent guidance throughout the year.

CHEMISTRY CLUB

Chemistry Club has been venturing into many of the more interesting and less scholarly aspects of chemistry. It has seen two-intertwining forks hanging in mid air, the burning of solid alcohol, and other phenomena of equal fascination. The highlight of the year was the annual trip to Argonne National Laboratory.

Chemistry Club's officers are President Steve Fisher, Vice-President Alan Woolf, and Secretary-Treasurer Marilyn Fischer. The sponsor is Miss Boon.

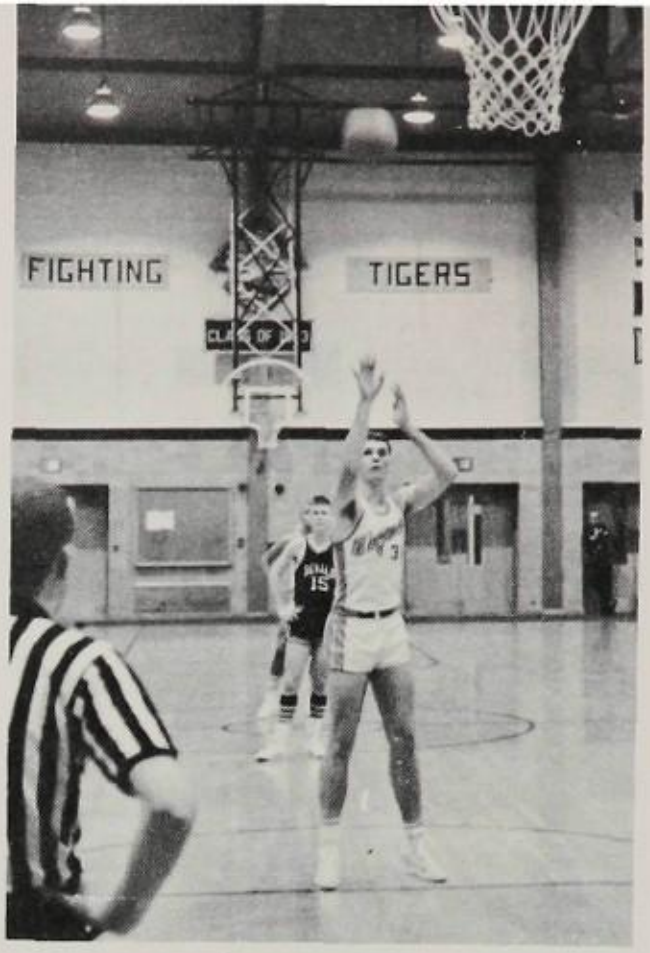
THE S.E.F.C.

An unofficial club.

In February of 1966, nine girls of the Class of '67 spontaneously started the Scott Early Fan Club for the purpose of cheering for Scott Early, the only underclassman on the varsity basketball team at the time. The activities of the club consisted of making things such as posters, which the basketball managers put up in the locker room, to encourage the team.

The club continued from 1966 into 1967 and its members have continued producing little bits of pep, such as the poem below which was written a day before the Wheaton - Aurora East game.



(Scott Early)

A VISIT FROM THE BENGALS with apologies to
Clement Clarke Moore

'Twas Aurora at Wheaton, and all through the stands
Everybody was yelling and clapping their hands.
A table was set in the lobby with care,
In hopes that a large senior per cent was there.
The Tomcats were practicing, smug on the floor
While visions of victory stole through their corps.
And Petey in his sweatshirt stood there without fear -
He'd just started up Senior Men's Pep Club to cheer
When down at the end there arose such a clatter,
Ev'rybody stood up to see what was the matter.
And up to their ears went the spectator's hands,
For it was Al Lowry and this year's Pep Band.
The glow from the socks on the managers, two,
Gave the brilliance of blindness to Aurora, ooh!
When, what to all floundering eyes should arise
But a basketball team made of eight Wheaton guys.
With a little (?), old (?) captain that shocked East quite thor'ly;
They knew in a moment it must be Scatt Early.
More rapid than eagles the cagers, they came.
The crowd whistled and shouted and called them by name:
Now Ridgely, now Al Duhm, now Bruce Smith and Barry,
On Tom Kee, on Scottie, on Mark S. and Garry.
To the top of the rim, to the spot on the board,
Now score, you must score as you never have scored.
As dry leaves that before a wild hurricane fly,
When they meet with an obstacle, mount to the sky,
So up to the basket the Cagers they flew,
With a bag full of tow'ls and a basketball, too.
And then in a twinkling, 'twas heard from the band
The Star Spangled Banner and, "Please will you stand."
As the last line was sung and the stands settled -
Boom!
For the jump ball went Early and tapped it to Duhm.
Scott was dressed all in white from his calves to his neck,
And his shoes were on forward, his socks straight - check.
A big number 30 was flung on his back,
And he looked like a peddler just opening his pack?
And he looked like a car thief in search of a jack?
Uh, forget that line.
His eyes - how they squinted, his hairdo - how curly,
His cheeks were like roses? uh, crabgrass?, his nose -
it was surly.
His droll little mouth was drawn up like a bow?
And the beard of his chin was as white as the snow?
(Those were too good to change.)
The round basketball he held high 'bove his head,
And the Tomcats around him all wished he were dead.
He called out a play in a low, dulcet bellow
That turned all opponents into bowls of Jello (?).
A squint of his eye and a straightforward look
Soon gave us to know that he had shot a hook.
The Tigers went on with their lay-ups and jumps,
And filled up the baskets - the Tomcats got coal lumps.
And putting two hands in the sign of a T
To the bench went the Tigers, Coach Duhm to see.
He sprang to the floor, to his team gave a whistle,
And away the score soared, like a misguided missile.
And we heard guys exclaim as we walked from the gym,
"Happy Tigers to all, and the Tomcats are grim."

TIGER TURNOUT USES

This year, Central's Homecoming parade was held on Thursday, October 14. The parade marked the beginning of Tiger Turnout 1966. Seniors Margaret Miller and Pete Jackson served as Homecoming chairmen and organized all the ensuing activities. Alan Lowry served as parade chairman.

The theme of Homecoming activities this year was "Song Titles," as evidenced by the many floats entered in the parade.

West Aurora Blackhawks. During halftime of the Varsity game, Dr. Birdsell crowned Jody Doudna the 1966 Tiger-Turnout Queen.

Because of the inclement weather the weekend of Tiger-Turnout, the Tigerettes did not perform until the next home game two weeks later.

The climax of the Tiger-Turnout festivities was the annual Tiger-Turnout dance, sponsored by Student Conference, and held on Saturday, October 15. The dance this year was entitled "Follow the Yellow Brick Road." The highlight of the evening was the coronation of John Belushi as Homecoming King.

Third-place freshman float: "Hungry."

First-place club float-Campus Life: "Red Roses for a Blue Blackhawk."

Fourth-place junior float. "Catch Us If You Can."

My house in Pentaling Jaya.

Here I am posing in the small auditorium.

My entire family and I as I wait in the airport.

Emerson said "trust thyself: every heart vibrates to that iron string." It was with such a trust (subliminal) though it might have been in the face of my exterior countenance of fear and anticipation) that I ventured to partake in this program of life-AFS.

"America is powerful!" "America is great!" What could I, a mere 17 year-old stranger, hope to achieve in this great society? Thoughts like those zinged through my brain as I left home. What impact could I possibly make in my one year here?

I had just to learn to TRUST. With trusting came UNDERSTANDING-understanding that there are no stringent or rigid rules of life-understanding that people can and do transcend beyond perfunctory differences (racial, social, cultural or religious) to engage themselves in a more rewarding act of reconciling man to man.

I can now say that my initial fears were groundless. I did not leave a host of kind, familiar, loving faces for a strange new land of hostile, unwelcoming strangers. Instead, I discovered a warm race of friendliness and geniality who opened their hearts and homes to me. I discovered America was not all Hollywood and movie stars, sky-scrapers and millionaires but America was people-living people, with similar wants and basic needs.

Life then became a sea of multi-colored bubbles, each bubble representing a day, which when popped revealed a new experience, an added understanding with the glow of a new horizon. Seeing snow, going through revolving doors, trick-or-treating, working a dish washer (I used to think they worked like clothes-washers and wondered why the plates never broke or cracked) were but few of the new experiences that added fulfilment to my life.

With every pleasure comes the price or demands and these I sometimes had to accept. I had to learn to be tactful, to attempt to always maintain an open mind and never judge according to first impressions. I had to eliminate all prior false conceptions and set off to discover the truth and this sometimes proved difficult. But it was this search for truth, this quest to discover PEOPLE and myself, that brought me to America. It is with your help that I managed to travel those aisles to share your life and to have this opportunity of gaining a lifetime of new insight, feeling and sense of purpose; for your help I am grateful.

It is indeed exhilarating and exciting, like merging into a world of another dimension and going on a field trip to collect a pile of treasures that we sometimes call memories. To the Wheaton community, my high school, Wheaton Central, and especially my American family, the Hirts, I express sincere gratitude for issuing me that passport to a new world. To you then and to all Americans I say "Thank You" for your friendship.

STUDENT COURT

Chris Olson, Court Recorder; Pete Jackson, Judge; Dave Toht, Assistant Judge.

Student Court is that body of our student government which enforces law and order. Student Court meets on Fridays in Room 208, under the direction of Mr. Wilson. Cases are tried and offenders are penalized. Student Court works in coordination with the hall monitors to maintain order in the halls of Wheaton Central.

MONITORS

ROW 1: M. Smith, S. Dahlberg, J. Fisher, L. Molthop, L. Feltmann, J. Orr. ROW 2: M. Vincent, M. Mares, J. Brinkman, G. McDuffy, J. Patton, S. Hapl. ROW 3: S. Turner, M. Giudice, B. Johnson, M. VandenEykl, K. Scharringhausen, J. Krulish, J. Neely.

Monitors are the emissaries of that branch of Student Conference called Student Court. Monitors are placed at strategic positions throughout the building where they hand out summons to appear in Court to any unauthorized persons walking in the halls or to those persons violating school conduct rules.

The week preceding the 1967 Conference elections was full of the annual poster parties, advisory skits, speeches, and finally the long-awaited open houses. This year these numerous and varied activities were sponsored by the Top Brass and the Red Barons.

The Top Brass candidates were these: Jeff Mellander for President, Cheryl Kamm for Vice-President, Rick Heckelman, for Judge, Steve Barnett for Treasurer, Marcia VandenEykel for Corresponding Secretary, and Anne Ferguson for Court Recorder. The Top Brass campaign was ably managed by John Stucker.

The Red Baron candidates were as follows: Alan Woolf for President, Joan Hirt for Vice-President, Greg Mackey for Judge, Clare Mankowski for Treasurer, Jane Newsom for Corresponding Secretary, and Joan Musschoot for Recording Secretary. Manager Alan Lowry capably planned the Red Barons' campaign strategy.

Seniors willingly help those baffled voters.

VERSUS THE TOP BRASS

Campaign parties, which were both political and social in nature, were held at the homes of the presidential candidates. Jeff Mellander hosted the Top Brass following, and Alan Woolf put out the welcome mat for the loyal Red Barons' boosters.

Time and advice were generously given by these faculty advisers: Miss Sally Nelson for the Top Brass and Miss Barbara Summers for the Red Barons.

The "computerized" results announced the afternoon after the ballots were cast showed that the school's new officers were Alan Woolf, President; Joan Hirt, Vice-President; Rick Heckelman, Judge; Greg Mackey, Assistant Judge; Clare Mankowski, Treasurer; Jane Newsom, Corresponding Secretary; Joan Musschoot, Recording Secretary; and Anne Ferguson, Court Recorder.

Thus ended the grueling week of Conference Elections.

'IMPROMTU' AND 'YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU'

THESPIANS ROW 1: M. Malloy, J. Belushi, J. Fletcher, K. Parent, D. Thieman, A. Choutka, W. Johnson. ROW 2: S. Newitt, S. Stitt, K. Rundblom, S. Needham, J. Newsom, D. Smith. ROW 3: K. Barlow, B. Franklin, J. Hirt, J. Musschoot, L. O'Donnell, J. Patton.

This year Wheaton Central's National Thespian Troupe 1022, under the direction of Mr. Daniel Payne, performed three all-school plays: YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU, IMPROMPTU, and MY THREE ANGELS. IMPROMPTU, this year's contest play, which starred John Belushi, Sue Stitt, Kathy Rundblom, and Don Thieman, advanced to the sectional contest at Homewood-Flossmoor. The competent performances in all three plays contributed to the fine year chalked up by Mr. Payne and his actors.

AND SO ON...

Behind the news and feature articles, sports pages, class columns, and advertisements which appeared in this year's Tiger Times was the hardworking, ever-thinking group of students known as the Tiger Times staff. Under the patient eye of Mr. Elfstrom, this group was able to publish Wheaton Central's contribution to the high-school newspaper world.

As well as keeping the student body informed on what's happening around the school, the Tiger Times gives journalistically-minded students a chance to try their hand at writing for a news medium.

Looking over copy are Valerie Benson, Louise Feltmann, and Lanny Liska.

1966-1967

There were many changes in this year's Wecomi- some very noticeable, some very subtle. These remarkable innovations include the following:

1. a new faculty adviser, Miss Pommier
2. a new publishing firm
3. a new, exciting greenhorn staff
4. unique layout of original copy (?)
5. an index of all four classes
6. an original cover design
7. recent exciting photos,

just to mention a few.

Partly responsible for our fast finish were Penny Otto, Ann Gaines, and Emily Pitts.

D WITH A FAST FINISH

Marlene and Miss Pommier were the brains and able directors of our organization.
